

trade

to give one thing
to get another

producer

a person who provides goods or services

consumer

a person who buys
goods or services

goods

things that can be bought and sold

product

something made by humans
or machines

services

work done for others
for money

needs

things people must have to live

wants

things that people would like to have but do not need

wool

thick, soft, curly hair of sheep, goats and other animals

sheared

to cut the wool off a sheep or other animal

card

to separate and straighten wool to be used to make yarn spinning wheel

a machine with a large wheel for spinning thread or yarn weave

to make by passing threads over and under each other tailor

a person who makes or repairs clothing

farmer

a person who owns or runs a farm

miller

a person who owns or works in a mill

baker

a person who bakes

wheat

the grain from certain grasses used to make flour
