

celebrate

to do something special for an important event

plead

to ask for something in a serious way

lollipop

a round piece of hard candy on the end of a stick

last

to go on through time;
continue

greedy

having a very strong desire for even more of something

shame

a feeling of guilt or sadness you have because you know you have done something wrong

share

to have or use something with others

skitters

to move quickly and lightly along a surface

scurries

to move quickly and with short steps

Empathy

empathy

the feeling that you understand and share another person's experiences and emotions
