

beckoned

to tell someone to come closer or to follow

soar

to fly at a great height

crate

large wooden box used for moving things

factory

a building where products are made hummed

to sing the notes of a song while keeping your lips closed

master

the owner of a slave

steamboat

a boat that is powered by steam that was used a lot in the 1800s

warehouse

a large building used for storing goods

tolerance

the ability to be accepting of people different from ourselves

Henry was a slave,
but he continued
to be hopeful
every day.

slave

a person who belongs to or is the property of someone else

The end of the school year can be bittersweet.

bittersweet

emotional feeling of
happy and sad
