

map

a picture that shows the rivers, mountains, streets, etc. in a particular area

globe

a round ball with a map of the earth on it meadow

a usually flat area of land that is covered with tall grass

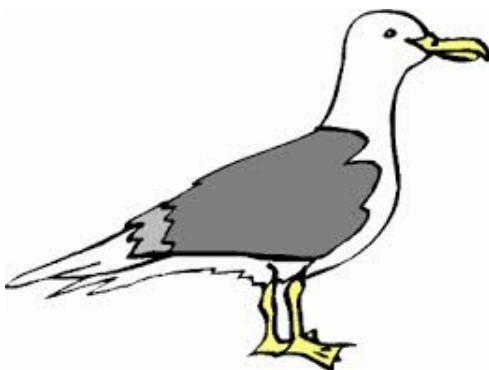

soar

to fly or glide high above in an easy way

shed

a small building used for storage or shelter

gull

a large, usually gray and white bird that lives near the ocean

factory

a building where products are made by machines

skyscraper

a very tall building

harbor

a sheltered area of water where boats can be anchored
