

mayor

the leader of a town or city duties obligations that must be fulfilled council

group of people who help run a city or town services

useful and important things that are provided for people taxes

money that people and businesses pay to support a government

