

pilot

the person who flies
an airplane

grocer

a person who sells food and other supplies for people's houses customer

a person who buys products or services

serious

important;
needing careful thought

politely
showing good manners or being thoughtful of others

budge
to change position slightly

fair treating people in a way that does not favor some over others wondered to want to know or learn something

library card

a card issued by a library that allows the owner to borrow materials

Ron had an important mission.

mission

special assignment given to a person