

safety

freedom from danger or harm,
being safe

speech

spoken expression of ideas or opinions in front of people

rules

statements that tell you what is or is not allowed

obey

to do what someone tells you to do or what a rule tells you to do.

audience

a group of people who gather to listen to or watch something accident

a sudden event that is not planned and may cause injury expression

the act of making your thoughts or feelings known by speech or facial looks or another method

buddy

a close friend

safe

not able or likely to hurt anyone

fair

treating people in a way that no one is favored over others.