

Candidate

A person who wants to be elected to a public office.

Campaign

A series of activities meant to help win an election.

Political party

Groups of people who have similar ideas about how to run the government.

Convention

A large meeting of people who come together to share their ideas and make decisions.

Speeches

Speaking to a large group of people.

Celebration

To do something special for an important event.

Running mate

Vice-Presidential candidate who partners with a candidate for President.

Debate

A discussion between 2 or more people about topics they do not agree upon.

Reporter

A person who talks or writes about the news on TV, Radio, and in newspapers.

Vote

A formal way to make a choice or state your opinion.
