

weather

the conditions outside at a particular place and time # meteorologist

the scientist that deals with the earth's atmosphere, climates, and weather

thermometer

an instrument for measuring temperature

prediction

a statement about what will happen or might happen in the future

radar

a system that uses waves of energy to sense objects # instruments

a device or tool that measures something