

When Marian Sang

prejudice

judging someone before you actually know anything about them

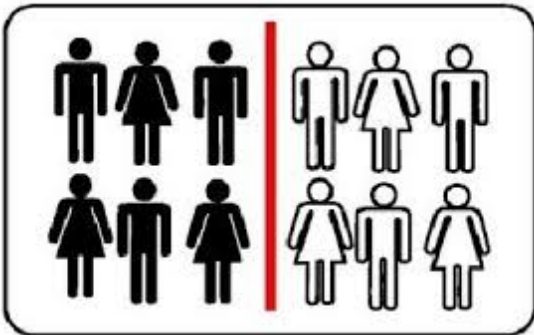

When Marian Sang

narrow-minded

not willing to accept opinions, beliefs, or behaviors that are different from your own

When Marian Sang

segregated

the practice or policy of keeping people of different races separate from each other

When Marian Sang

inspired

to feel excited, enthusiastic, interested, impressed

dignity

being worthy of respect or esteem

achieved

to have accomplished something with effort

remarkable

unusual or worthy of notice

unwavering

firm, determined, not shakable

When Marian Sang

encouragement

to give someone hope,
confidence, support

---

When Marian Sang

passionate

having or showing strong feelings

---

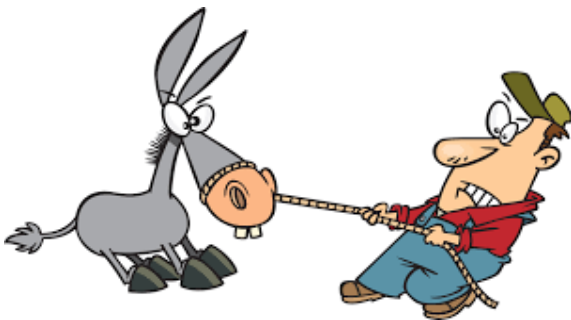

When Marian Sang

endured

put up with something unpleasant

---

When Marian Sang

determined

to continue to try to do or achieve something that is difficult

---

enraged

marked by extreme anger

---