

soil

dirt

moat

a ditch around something,
often filled with water

tendrils

a narrow vine that curls around other objects and helps a vine grow

vine

a long stem that grows along the ground

sprout

a new plant that has just started to grow

wilted

to lose freshness and become limp carved

to form by cutting

rot

to decay; break down

wrinkled

a fold or ridge on a flat surface

mold

a fungus that grows on the surface of a plant

earth

soil or dirt

weeded

to remove weeds
